

CLASS 3: PROPHET, PRIEST AND KING

3.1 INTRO

3.2 JESUS AS PROPHET

A) Definition of a Prophet – a prophet _____ by communicating His inspired Word to people, accompanied by miraculous works and accurate future predictions

B) Jesus as Prophet

1) Jesus was recognized as a prophet by the _____ (Luke 7:16)

2) Jesus was recognized as a prophet by the _____ (Deut 18:15; Acts 3:22-24):

3) Jesus also _____ - _____ as a prophet (Matt 13:57)

C) So What?

- Acting as a prophet, Jesus perfectly _____ God's will and Word to us (Luke 4:17-21)

D) Believers as Prophets

- Though Christians are not prophets in a _____ sense, they do communicate God's Word and have similar prophetic functions (1 Cor 13:8-12).

3.3 JESUS AS PRIEST

A) Definition of a Priest – a priest _____ to God, helping mediate with sacrifices and worship.

B) Jesus as Priest

Hebrews 4:14; 5:1-7 –

Genesis 14:18-20 –

Hebrews 7:1-3, 15-22, 26-28 –

C) So What?

- Jesus the High Priest enables believers to _____ to God (Heb 10:21-22).

D) Believers as Priests

- Believers function as priests by offering themselves as spiritual _____ and by proclaiming to unbelievers the good news of salvation (1 Pet 2:5, 9).

3.4 JESUS AS KING

A) Definition of a King – a king ruled over God’s people as God’s _____.

B) Jesus as King

1) Jesus is the King of the _____ (Matt 2:2; Luke 1:32-33; Acts 1:6).

2) Jesus is the future, _____ king of the universe (Matt 25:31; Rev 19:16).

C) So What?

- Jesus will one day provide a perfect _____ to rule over for His subjects
(Rev 7:16-17)

D) Believers as Kings

- Believers are not yet kings, but they will be given the privilege to _____ with the King of Kings (Eph 2:6; Rev 22:5).

3.5 JESUS AS MESSIAH

A) Prophets, Priests and Kings were all _____ offices
(1 Kgs 19:16; Exod 30:30).

B) “_____” means “The Anointed One”